

Robert Gunzburg

Robert Gunzburg is an orthopaedic spine surgeon in private practice. He was trained by Robert Fraser in Adelaide. He has always been very active in Society life and is past president of both the International Society for the Study of the Lumbar Spine as the Spine Society of Europe. He is the Editor-in-Chief of the European Spine Journal. He is an active researcher in field of mechanics of the spine. He lectures around the world and has published many original papers, book chapters and books. Together with Dr Marek Szpalski he organises since é' years the Brussels International Spine Symposium. With some colleagues he has initiated, chaired and organised the four yearly SpineWeek conferences.