

Charlotte Hartley

Charlotte graduated from the University of Nottingham with a Master of Nursing Science (MNurSci) in 2011. She currently works as a Deputy Team Leader within the Spinal Operating Theatres at the Queen's Medical Centre in Nottingham. Charlotte has participated in previous NSpine conferences by assisting in lab sessions. She has taken an active role in AO live tissue training courses and has a particular interest in complex adult deformity and spinal tumours.