

Ivana Jankovic

In 1998 I completed my university course in Italy (Bologna) and qualified as a Neurophysiology Technician. Since 2002 I have been working at Great Ormond Street Hospital as part of the Neurophysiology Department, and in 2006 my work started in the operating theatres. Currently I am a Lead Physiologist for Intraoperative neuromonitoring at Great Ormond Street Hospital.