

Robert Pflugmacher

Professor Robert Pflugmacher is the Director spine department University of Bonn, Germany. He has been involved with SI Bone since 2009 and has carried out 58 iFuse cases to date in Germany, as well as other cases in Europe. He was also involved in the study IMIA which is a 1 year follow up European prospective RCT study showing superior results comparing iFuse to conservative treatment.