

Constantin Schizas

Constantin Schizas is an orthopaedic surgeon specialising in spinal surgery. He trained in internationally renowned institutions such as the Royal National Orthopaedic Hospital (London, UK) and the Schulthess Clinic (Zurich, Switzerland).

After working several years as a Consultant Orthopaedic and Spine Surgeon in London (Whittington Hospital), he moved to Switzerland in 2003 where he established the adult spinal surgery division in the orthopaedic department at the University Hospital of Lausanne (CHUV).

From December 2013 onwards, he practices at Clinique Cecil in Lausanne in collaboration with the neurosurgical team. He shares his office with Prof. B. Jolles-Haeberli, who specialises in prosthetic hip and knee surgery.

He specializes in particular in the following conditions:

- Minimally invasive spine surgery
- Spinal stenosis
- Cervical and lumbar disc herniations
- Spinal deformities
- Scoliosis
- Kyphosis
- Spinal tumors
- Spinal infections
