

Masood Shafafy

Mr Shafafy Qualified from St Bartholomew's Hospital Medical College of University of London in 1994. He completed basic surgical training in Orthopaedics, Neurosurgery, general and vascular surgery in London and Essex before embarking on Advance Surgical Training in Orthopaedics and trauma at the Royal London Hospital in 1999. Following completion of Surgical specialist training which was mainly focused on Spinal surgery in 2005 he went on to complete two Senior Clinical fellowship in Complex Spinal deformity surgery in Oxford and Nottingham before taking a consultant post in 2007.

In addition to main stream spinal surgery , Mr Shafafy's main interest is in complex paediatric and adult deformity correction with particular sub-specialist interest in Adolescent idiopathic scoliosis.

He has been a faculty, chairman and lectured in numerous national and international spinal courses. He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of England, the British Orthopaedic Association. He is a member of the British Medical Association, the British Association of Spine Surgeons, the British Scoliosis Society, International AO Spine, Spine Society of Europe and North American Spinal Society.