

Nadine Carey-Whitehead

Nadine Carey-Whitehead has 30 years' experience in bringing savings, efficiencies and change through enabling technologies in healthcare, education and both local and central government. Nadine is currently working with health organisations on behalf of Genesis Automation Healthcare to realise both cash releasing and efficiency savings while improving patient safety through the use of inventory optimisation and point of care traceability solutions coupled with advanced Healthcare Analytics. Nadine can be contacted at: Nadine.CareyWhitehead@genesisautomation.healthcare