

Jacek Cęcek

LfC – general director/proxy

Mr. Cecek graduated at HTW Berlin – University of Applied Sciences as industrial engineer. He has over 20 years of experience in management of international SME's. His professional carrier started in OTTO Group in Germany. Later on he became a CEO in an international production company specialized in garden furniture.

Mr. Cecek joined LfC in the year 2000 where he gained skills in the field of bio-engineering. He is responsible for general management & involved in international marketing, business development, patent management and finances. He has co-ordinated and participated in several r&d projects resulting in innovative medical technologies for surgical treatment of spine. As co-inventor he holds several patents for spinal implants. Mr. Cecek is member of Polish Spine Surgery Society (PTChK), Society for Study and Treatment of Spine (SSiLK), and others. Mr. Cecek most valuable contribution to LfC's business development was successful introduction of Quality Management System, spinal implant IP sale to an US company and ongoing enlarging of international markets for LfC's portfolio branded Spinal System DERO.