

Márk Kőszegváry

Academic Education

Sep 1992 - Jul 1998

Semmelweiss University
Faculty of Medicine, Budapest, Hungary
(Graduated with Honors)

Dissertation

May 1998 Doctorate studies at the Medical Faculty, Semmelweiss University (Clinic for Urology), Budapest, Hungary
Topic: "Urinary incontinence in women"

Medical Licensing

1998 License as a Medical Doctor in Hungary
2004 License as a Medical Doctor in Germany

Work Experience Abroad

Jun 1996 - Aug 1996 New York: Mount Sinai Medical Center, "Division of Neoplastic Disease", fellowship basic science

Jun 2003 - Aug 2003 Shadowing of work in a clinic for Spinal Surgery
Prof. Dr. med. Henry F.H.Halm, Klinikum Neustadt.
Special training in Scoliosis surgery

Clinical Experience

Jan 2010 – Present Senior attending physician (department representative) in the Clinic for Spinal Surgery and Scoliosis Center, Center for Thoracic Wall Deformations, Schön Klinik, Neustadt, Germany

Jul 2005 - Present Attending physician in the clinic for Spinal Surgery and Scoliosis Center, Center for Thoracic Wall Deformations, Schön Klinik, Neustadt, Germany
Areas of responsibility as the member of DRG group (quality control, operating theater planning and coordination, human resource management)

Areas of Expertise

Deformities surgery (Scoliosis, Kyphosis)

Surgical treatment of the cervical spine

Surgical treatment of the thoracic and lumbar spine

Surgical treatment of spondylolisthesis

Minimally invasive expansion of the spinal canal and removal of herniated disks

Minimally invasive procedures on the spine

Awards

Oct 1995 ECG Prize, University Competition

May 1996 1st Prize, University Competition in Orthopedics

Dec 1997 Winner of the directors prize

“Incontinence in women“