

Eric Muehlbauer

Eric J. Muehlbauer, MJ, CAE earned a law degree in 2004 from Loyola University Chicago Law School and his focus was Health Law & Policy. He has also completed coursework on Strategic Perspectives in Non-profit Management from the Harvard University School of Business in Cambridge, MA. He has been Executive Director and CEO of NASS since September 1994 and became a Certified Association Executive in 2002. NASS has become a well-respected voice in the health policy field and a leader in the areas of Ethics and Hands-on Education through use of its Specialty Education and Research Center. He is a member of the American Society of Law, Medicine and Ethics (ASLME) and the American Association of Medical Society Executives (AAMSE). He has a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations from Knox College where he was the Hunter Trophy winner (highest GPA of athletes) and holds the record for most career punt returns.