

Petr Rehousek

Consultant Spinal Neurosurgeon

Qualified at 1st Medical Faculty Charles University in Prague in 1999 and underwent my higher neurosurgical training in Czech Republic.

On completion of my training I undertook a spinal fellowship at the Centre for Spinal Studies and Surgery in Nottingham in 2013-2015.

I'm a full time spinal surgeon at the Royal Orthopaedic Hospital Birmingham, the majority of my work is focusing on degenerative conditions and tumours in the spine.

I'm a member of the Czech Neurosurgical Society and the European Association of Neurosurgical Societies.
