

Navin Verghese

Mr. Navin Verghese is the clinical lead of Spinal Surgery for Abertawe Bro Morgannwg University Health Board, South Wales. Graduating from St Barts and the Royal London Medical School he worked in and around London during his house jobs before completing the All Wales T & O Higher surgical training programme where he worked in the Cardiff, Swansea and Oswestry spinal units. Following a fellowship in the AO Brisbane spinal centre where he helped set up the primary spinal tumour service for Queensland and Northern Australia he took up post in the Murrumbidgee Spinal unit.

Mr Verghese currently co-chairs the South Wales spinal surgical clinical reference group to reconfigure the management of emergency spinal care.

His main clinical expertise is in the minimally invasive management of complex primary and revisional degenerative conditions in particular lateral lumbar surgery where he is involved in teaching and research in his capacity as a member of SOLAS.